

AMETEK MOCON LAUNCHES NEW FRENCH, ITALIAN AND SPANISH WEBSITES, NEW DIGITAL CAPABILITIES

Minneapolis, MN (Dec. 28, 2020) – AMETEK MOCON, a global leader in analyzers, instruments, sensors and gas measurement technologies, today announced the launch of new French, Italian and Spanish versions of its www.ametekmocon.com website: www.ametekmocon.fr, www.ametekmocon.it and www.ametekmocon.es.

The newly translated websites showcase MOCON Permeation Analyzers, Dansensor Packaging Testing Analyzers, and Baseline Industrial Analyzers & Sensors to French-, Italian and Spanish-speaking customers. They also provide extensive product, technical, and application information in local languages, communicating AMETEK MOCON’s full line of products to our customers in France, Italy, and Spain.

In addition, we expanded the websites to include an “Articles” and “Newsletters” section, so that the package testing and gas analysis community can stay up to date on the latest applications and industry trends. There is also a new Partner Portal for our channel partners to get detailed information on our products, like instructions manuals and service bulletins.

“It is great that we now have websites that speak to our French-, Italian- and Spanish-speaking customers,” said Phillip Tan, Global Director of Strategic Marketing, AMETEK MOCON. “These new sites support our local sales and service operations in France, Italy, and Spain and demonstrate our continued investment in digital capabilities that help our partners and customers.”

The new digital assets are both mobile- and tablet-friendly and support AMETEK MOCON’s growing global footprint.
